AF Academy Cadet Gives Falconry Demonstration

A free demonstration of falconry will be given at 10 a.m. Saturday at El Segundo Recreation Park by Merritt Eastcott, United States Air Force Academy cadet from Torrance. The party is at 401 Sheldon St. Cadet Eastcott, a third classman at the Air Force Academy, is one of the few cadets trained as falconers and entitled to handle the bird which is the official mascot of the institution. Eastcott lives at 3730 W. 176th St., and is home for the holidays. Air Force Academy liaison officers will also be present Saturday to advise and counsel young men of high school age who may be interested in careers in the United States Air Force.

Savings Assn. Office Open In Lakewood

Great Western Savings this week announced the opening of a new office in Lakewood. The association's seventh office is located at 5301 Lakewood Blvd. The new office is an "aerodome" structure and was inflated Dec. 20. It is the first such structure in California designed to be used as a customer service facility. It is a temporary building, supported by air pressure, and will be replaced early in 1962.
